

3-13-1907

Bulloch Times

Notes

Condition varies. Some pages missing or in poor condition.

Originals provided for filming by the publisher.

Gift of Statesboro Herald and the Bulloch County Historical Society.

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/bulloch-news-issues>

Recommended Citation

"Bulloch Times" (1907). Bulloch County Newspapers (Single Issues). 254.
<https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/bulloch-news-issues/254>

This newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Bulloch County Historical Newspapers at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in Bulloch County Newspapers (Single Issues) by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.

A BROKEN IDOL.

[illegible]

front room, a woman still knelt before the bed. It was all so still and so quiet that he hesitated, struck with a thought. Had the Angel of Death come to check the doctor-patient even while he slept? He had been so sure that he had been away! Entering, he lifted his wife from the floor. His voice was hoarse when he spoke.

"Margaret!" he said. "Meg! My wife!"

It was the little tender name of their courtship days. Angelle's arms were outstretched to him, and he felt the tears on his cheek as she pressed her face to his.

"He is better," she whispered. "His voice breathes in a sob. 'The full astrophor season after you left, Ronald, told me all I said.'"

"Dear human love—that is a man's voice!" he cried for every lost hope, and a deafening answer. Ronald knew that he comforted the sobbing woman in his arms.

"I have snatched it," he told her.

"Angelle, you will never see the thing again," he said. "I have snatched it. I have snatched it; it was no good. I've been snatched too!"

She looked up at him; he could see that her regret was deeper than his.

"Oh, Ronald," she said.

theasure of the world to you!"

He stooped and kissed her, she said
"God has been good to me," he said, was tremulous when he spoke.

"I have seen the world is here!"
—London Answers.

GAY TIMES IN ENGLISH SOCIETY.

Leoplog After Dinner Favorit
Amusement, viz. "Vanity Fair."

Father Vaughan's sermon to the smart set last season, which attracted so much comment, have already been mentioned in The Sun. A writer in Vanity Fair, referring to Father Vaughan's sermon, says, "The sermon in country houses, says the exaggerated gentleman has not reached the f.c.c.a. this winter says:

"The co-ri-ut-ty house season is now in full swing. The play which is sometimes indulged in is in many cases merely of a rough boyish description. For instance, there is a case of the infants at a certain house paying leoplog in the afternoon. The hostess is of the great name and many of the guests were well known men and women of society.

"But the leoplog game is of great excitement and eminent good taste. The leoplog game is a most amusing game which have come to the writ-only notice. The following are no instances:

"I was well known in a certain neighbourhood and told me that she had been staying with some people in a certain country house. After dinner, man came up to her in the back parlour and said, 'Now let me see your wig.' She said, 'I will carry you into the room.' There were weight-rods on scales in the room, but she laughingly and quite good naturedly refused. He then actually said, 'Well, look at my wig.' 'Don't let me carry you, I shall empty my whiskey and soda down the back of your pretty white neck.'"

"The girl, who never for a moment supposed that the man was in earnest, was so much frightened that she couldn't be weighed. A moment later she was actually turned at least half of her whiskey and soda down the back of her neck and roars of laughter by every one."

"The other story was related to me by a male relation of my own. He was conversing with a very well known hostess. After dinner a woman who sat next to him drank a slightly heated glass of wine and then poured the rest of the wine down his neck. His remark was to put the whole of the grape skins down the back of her neck."—London Correspondent of the New York Sun.

A woman in Glasgow bought a ticket for Canada thirty-one years ago. It

THE SEA HEART**
BY FRANK LILLIE POLLOCK.

Where the wind and rain beat and batter,
Where the sun and moon rise and set,
There the ocean's somber swelling,
Earth compelling Shakes my landward-looking dwelling
With a summing-up, Guns, horns, . . .

Where the rich earth dreams and throes,
Rises with roses,
Plowed and sown,
Through the trees and wind and thunder, Rolling under Stalks of corn
I may sink,
We a crew Wilt with
But the sea
Stalks of corn

Put on a hot platter, add a teaspoonful of paste and place the dish on the back of the range for a few minutes before serving. To make the paste, put into a bowl two teaspoonfuls of salad dressing, half a teaspoonful of the and romantic school-a man of the world

BY PAUL MON

enced in the most lavishing of easychairs, Judge Lindsey sat ruthfully contemplating a huge pile of unopened letters that lay on the table before him.

Letters there were of all sorts and sizes—letters in blue envelopes, business letters—from ladies, who, trusting in his piety, had written to the judge, ventured to appeal to him in behalf of some pet missionary society—from young ladies who had been rescued by cruel guardians—from men, who, having failed to start themselves in business—alighted in one shapeless mass; looming up sternly, as it to stare him out from the wall, was a letter from a woman, whom he should be tempted to pink back his head and shoulders, and sink the police far niente, and selling

(to be distributed) ter) he would his mind.
the great grati-
as a curiosity let was looked lawyer resented From this came home life. Wherever abroad, a phrebut himself, any day, he startlingly every woman at every turn acted a slight and a little like the man

the flavor of his cigar, until with a peevish "pahaw!" he dashed it into the grate, then paused a moment, as to common resolution, and, plunging in his hand to the very bottom of the pile, drew forth a dainty little billet which he opened and forthwith began to read. It ran as follows:

"Judge Lindsey—This is strictly a business letter and confidential. But first, as we have no mutual acquaintance to perform the duty, I must introduce myself. I am twenty years of age, neither pretty nor clever, but have a heart to appreciate honest integrity of character, as exemplified in yourself when you refused the bribe of Mr. Burnette, truly a fortune teller by his looks, rather than sully your own by accepting of a bribe from the heritage which would be a stain on the character of the loved husband. And I am anxious to write this to tell you how much I admire, and even love—the polished gentleman as whose scutcheon rests no stain—but him who in an age of unparalleled corruption, holds fast his integrity, unmoved by the clamor of friends or the promptings of interest.

With using faith in all mankind, I have conferred it and I am sure you will confer it and

"In all probability we shall never meet on earth. Indeed, I should scarcely wish it, for what could you think of me, save that I was bold and unadvisedly? But wherever you may be, like guardian angels shall go with you, the prayers of

"ALTHEA."

The event here recorded transpired soon after the trial of the late Burrinette will case, where the family of the deceased contested the will of their son, the parents protesting against allowing the whole property to revert to the young widow, on the ground that the deceased had left childless, together with the fact that the wife had brought no dowry to her husband, Mrs. Burnette having been very poor at the time of her marriage.

Judge Lindsey had been the deceased millionaire's legal adviser in the management of his estate, and had assisted in framing the will, the event having occurred when the son, Henry Burnette, was in Florida and vigorous health, some three years prior to his death. And it was the lawyer's intimate knowledge of the and was soon here one of the dropped her when a sudden fluttering all feet.

"But I had no intent on securing."

"Permit me, Lindsey, instead of picking it up."

"But on my fingers, what on beholding, fate embraced Althea!"

"And here—"

Mrs. Burns' affairs that had the elder Mr. Burns to appeal to him to take the matter into his own hands. Lindsey a heavy bribe was offered to induce him to do so, and a second time in his son's estate, should he succeed in winning the case. But Judge Lindsey had rejected the bribe with scorn, and refused to act in direct opposition to the interests of his own heart. And it was this act in his life to which the writer referred in the extraordinary letter the judge now held in his hand. For this act, engaged in by him for a long time, entailed on him a punishment, a punishment of the most severe kind, and the expression of Judge Lind-

Miss Westbrooke, having been informed of the fact, and of the bluish, with a long neck and had dreamed of As these things to his brain with- holding, he glanced across the sea the half-recurrence of the utterance of the became doubly

"I have been thinking of you," said the elder lady to Mrs. Van I her face as he hurried reading the daily missive, his fortune had infinitely been made. Was she a bachelor of six-and-forty, could he be before?—and it was a lady—the perfumed paper and delicate chirography left no doubt of that—young and gay, and with a fortune as good as his. The heart of the dignified invalid beat as rapidly as that of a maiden in her teens while he began to experience a glow of joy in the region of that part of his chest, the location of that part of his chest, the location in his veins as if the blood flowed afresh and faster than he ever accidentally fell upon one of those straggling communications addressed to no reference to the fact that the circumstances were blotted from his memory.

was over. Judge Lindbergh, a young lady to favor the music, and she conducted her to the piano.
As at first nervous and the beauties of the city developed, her her rosy lips parted, and in her eyes, and

"The golden notes, and soft, dying
"exquisite" burst from
"unperpetrated auditor."
"she said, simply,
"that I always fancy
"a dim forest, and I
"the wind sighing amid
"the birds calling from
"the grove," he returned,
"and not which most to
"admirable genius,
"compliment me—I do

...and, much for me is a
 ...a delight.
 ...at times still be not
 ...to himself, "I do not
 ...
 ...afternoon saw him
 ...in Dorra mansion. He
 ...and, he was
 ...entering, who, as a
 ...became
 ...frequently evident difficulty
 ...
 ..."commenced the
 ...the playing an agita-
 ...as an ornament of
 ...

“Sweetbrock, I have an wonder to ask you—but which I’ll deliver a letter from a head and cast it to as he move, a lidian.

Don’t walk n an old pers people these depress

my dear child? I for your entertainment, for you than justification,” said Judge carelessly. “For years I have been against all cavalry.”

[illegible]

"I through her tears,
And Judge actually mastered by the tenderness at the sudden it was sweet young girl actually folded his so protectively,
two large tears resting in tiny furrows.

But she wasn't in timid happiness at all; beside her and behind her he held the house and he left not his own, the fondness of the fair young woman had bound himself.

Amazing Com-
"If anybody characterized," said behind me," as I by Snore B. I fore her marriage of the E Washington wa
the Monumental of lavender crop and panels of brightened bright leaves in varieg around the neck and small flowers

Stockton started out Grange experiences keep little Mary one month before the crown was
New York Press.

Only Woman
Miss Mary Child is the only woman making a success of the market before controlled men. She has methods employed mill growers in her eighty-acre

The best mint produced in the North American continent.

The harvest comes grown from the United States in the northern Indiana county in New York this locality.

With most gums in September certain that the mint principle roots of the plant vests her mint the menal their leaves come in the tree she can pick out who produces a and more of it is to be used for driving gas engines, and a self-sufficient combustible material, as motor, and to be, that is the Hammett in a Lloyd case decided that he to rise to a point of the Qbore, who in one of the rear to adjourn in the

by Robert's Rule

the Dura rule.

Miss Clark is a ranked twenty and ten cws night a looking after the and horse. She over a mother, a works on the may season, wh

to take care of Nitta correspond

A pretty and the jeune fille is We see an occ among the fall h

the evening bodices of broadtail at the throat and a and embroidery is seen.
A box of light blue rich tulle is made the addition of long ribbons.
of marvelous color
of very rich,
emire, but charmed out.
other short jacket

An Australian cous players is offered the juice squeezed some giving enough
shoe with a fine lu

Hunters in Canada have to gun for a hopelessly drunk berries, and are th
A number of int
have been taken th

Daniel R. Lash picked thirteen bound in jacket natty, and have a nary look.

millinery is that of tiny blossoms of the heavy or he evening hat.

velvet held by a tation are seen on rest models. The s below the veat.

as are having quite s new look. When ding to the usual charming setting

from one tree on gelman farm, and seven to thirteen

Edgar H. Benson
Me., has been exnert raising for two year has raised two large peanuts. His mate is not favoring.

One of the oldest bated in New York
other day after the Behrens, an lawyer places in front is many women who proved by it, and consider it an expense to be worn under Little Way.

of Denver, is the story that was church the other day, as soon as he

By John A. Foley, compared it for Mr. E. 1887.

The village of voted to adopt the ply to all pupils in without regard to the few will ring every week at 7.30 p. m. Saturday and Sunday

Of the ice-kept, a French sailor, cl been most enduringly fairly preserved after

Some three er, began to take the Denver probe seen in qualitad of the
as, the bishop passed along the e loungers and ealons would say:
"I call a bishop."
a stranger, noted away the bishop the slums, would ere?"
be; he and then to the

that?" would come proud answer:
bishop.

to Europe.

South America deof the other na-
on whom, indeed, the populating of the victories and or natural sources possesses sufficient to appreciate but they accept agents which Eu-America bring

A miner who lost sands years ago has a copper mine in Chi-copper oxide had much value. These sacks clothing of the man, was found we were also two mal-out of granite and ironstone. These died with things made as double bar-hide and the stick

CHINESE CRICKETS.
How the Combatants Pitted Against A. E. Parker has from a trip to San-city in Kwangtung
while there visited where he saw six o-ware bowls of fight-He was much at-description of the hiding and durtling ing the day the four crickets are the four head has circled twenty-two in adult life is fully a man's hat generally. "Sevens" at Aberdeen, and at colleges generally.

Of the sizes that are being less than a circumference, I find. Between 9 1/2 inches in circumference are invariably going to this author, think of marriage less than as night falls they are dealt consists of w and a little ginseng, to give them stami- In matching the they are weighed, and would not be pitted weight. The insect combat with a w rouse their anger. The belief that tinguished by pieces is a fallacy. They by their owners as canine pets. In a cricket to run away inference." "I am less than nineteen years old, mentally deficient, and have been in the hospital for eighteen months," said the idiotic. "—Young King."

—
The goodness as well as the tail of the Queen of Pors is less known to gr at talent for intended tourist times seen — as resurre he likes his camel represses sky and the ethereal waves—emotional colors, its every year at

... of the lib-
used as blacking, from four blo-liquid to coat a tre.
... in, Conn., do not ridges, which get eeding on poke easily captured.
eated partridges ro.
... of Reading, Pa., shells of apple

lawyer, who pre-hears, March 1, Slows, Vt., has arrow law to ap-
the public schools, their age. The en-evening in the except Friday, y.

his life two thousand taken from recently. Copied his whole g. evidently the bent Inca work the body, as a one fashioned the other out of complements were bent sticks. Both the were as fresh the latter being insects to fight a lightweight at a welterweight are spurred on by fine piece of meat naturally arp and piano.

made by the commendation of oners, and an Grace has been

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE
DISTINCTIVELY A CREAM OF TARTAR BAKING POWDER

It does not contain an atom of phosphoric acid (which is the product of bones digested in sulphuric acid) or of alum (which is one-third sulphuric acid), unhealthy substances adopted for other baking powders because of their cheapness.

LITTLE LOCALS

Messrs. G. F. Sutton and R. D. Smith, the naval stores operators of the Sinkhole district, were visitors to Statesboro yesterday, coming in their handsome new automobile, accompanied by their families.

Just received, car "White Rose" Alabama Lime.

A. J. FRANKLIN.

On the first of April the Southern Express Co. will move into its uptown office, adjoining the National Bank. W. J. Rackley & Bro. will at that time move into their own store adjoining the Times office.

Miss Katherine Kennedy has returned home from Statesboro, where she has been visiting for the past two weeks. Her many friends will be sorry to hear that she will leave on Monday for White Springs, Colorado.—Tallmull Times.

If you are going to build a good house, cover it with Cortright Metal Shingles. I have them in stock.

A. J. FRANKLIN.

Services were held at the Presbyterian church last Sunday morning, Rev. J. C. Rowan, of Columbia, S. C., filling his regular appointment at that time. The evening service was called in and the Presbyterian congregation attended the special missionary service at the Methodist church.

New and handsome line of Schless Bros.' spring clothing just received.

B. E. TURNER CO.

Misses Amanda Tipton and Lillian Kesler, of Baltimore, who were in charge of the millinery department of the J. W. Olliff Co. last season, have returned for the coming season, and are at home to their friends, prepared to please the ladies of this vicinity with the very newest ideas in the millinery art.

Anderson has a few of his many styles of spring and summer Oxford in his window. See his line before buying.

The work of hauling material to the college site, preparatory to beginning work, has been commenced. Messrs. McLemore & Brannen have the contract for delivering the brick from the railroad to the grounds, which contract calls for the handling of 1,000,000 brick. This job itself is a big one, and will require several months' work.

See those beautiful art squares at B. E. Turner Co.'s store.

Messrs. Aimer and Eawright, who have leased the plant of the Statesboro Ice Manufacturing Co. for the coming season, are now making arrangements to begin manufacturing ice, and expect to be prepared to supply the local market within a few days. These gentlemen also have charge of the Stillmore ice factory and expect to be able to supply the demand without difficulty during the coming summer.

New line of ladies' belts and combs just received.

B. E. TURNER CO.

Dixon-Wise.

On Sunday afternoon, 10th inst., at the home of the bride near Zoar, Mr. O. Dixon, of Effingham county, and Mrs. R. P. Wise were united in marriage by Rev. A. L. Brantley.

A large number of friends witnessed the ceremony.

Wanted.

Two first-class milch cows; no common stock. M. L. GLISSON.

Feb. 28, 1907.

Clary's Millinery

for spring will be put on sale March 16th—the most up-to-date line ever shown here. Don't buy your Easter hat until after you see Clary's Easter hats.

Newmans-Bland.

A very pretty home wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Bland, at Hubert, on Thursday, the 7th inst.

Miss Lillian, their daughter, one of the most attractive and accomplished young ladies of this section was happily married to Mr. Charles Newman, of Savannah, who holds the position of inspector of electric lines in that city.

The happy young people will make their home in Savannah, whither they went soon after Rev. Smith performed the ceremony.

Soda Fountain for Sale.

A handsome fountain, cost over $300, been used one season; will sell at a bargain.

B. E. TURNER CO.

Cotton Slightly Up.

Though there has been little activity in the cotton market during the week, the tendency has been slightly upward in both uplands and sea islands. The highest price paid here for sea islands since the holidays was paid last Friday—35 cents.

This is only about two cents below the best price paid before Christmas.

Upland cotton has not varied much for several months, though it, too, had an upward tendency last week and brought 11 1/4 cents for a few bales. "It might be said, in passing, that while the crop has been understood to be about in for several weeks, hardly a day passes but that some farmer comes in with a few bales of the staple which he has been holding for an advance in the market."

SPECIAL MEETING BEGUN.

Services at Baptist Church Afternoon and Evening.

The special services at the Baptist church began Monday evening, though the minister, Rev. Buchholz, evangelist for the State Baptist convention, who is conducting the services, did not arrive until yesterday morning.

Preaching is being held each afternoon at 3:30 and evenings at 7:15, and will continue through the entire week.

Rev. Radmond Bell, of Atlanta, accompanied the evangelist and will assist in the music during the series of services.

If you want brick I have either sand lime or Augusta brick on hand.

A. J. FRANKLIN.

PROGRAM

General meeting of Bulloch County Association to be held with the Macedonia church March 29-31.

FRIDAY.

10 a. m.—Prayer and praise service, led by W. P. Donaldson.

11 a. m.—Introductory sermon, W. D. Horton; alternate, W. B. Addison.

2:30 p. m.—The work of the Baptists an urgent work, W. O. Darsey and W. C. Parker.

SATURDAY.

10 a. m.—Prayer and praise service, led by T. J. Cobb.

11 a. m.—What constitutes a good Sunday-school superintendent? A. L. Brantley and W. H. Cone.

1:30 a. m.—An ideal church member, Wm. Hursey and M. H. Massey.

2:30 p. m.—What Baptist principles are worth to the world, A. H. Stapler and J. J. Miller.

SUNDAY.

10 a. m.—Sunday-school mass meeting, conducted by A. L. Brantley.

11 a. m.—Preaching, M. H. Massey.

For Sale.

One first-class range; been used only a few months; will sell at a bargain.

M. L. GLISSON.

Dissolution Notice.

The firm of J. J. Howard & Co. has been dissolved by mutual consent, J. Howard's interest having been bought by the undersigned, who will continue business under the firm name of Howard Lumber Co.

J. J. HOWARD,
J. E. HOWARD.

Feb. 28, 1907.

The firm of F. L. Clary will from now on be known as

Statesboro Dry Goods Company

Several Thousand Dollars' worth of new

Spring and Summer Goods

that have already arrived will be placed on sale at reduced prices

All Winter Goods at actual cost!

This reduction will last 30 days

Extra help will be employed to wait on the trade

Statesboro Dry Goods Co.

GEORGIA'S BIG DAY

June 10th Has Been Selected at Jamestown.

PRESIDENT WILL ATTEND THAT DAY

Arrangements Have Been Made For an Interesting Program For The Occasion.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 16.—Georgia Day, Monday, June 10, at the Jamestown Exposition, will be a great day. Mr. W. N. Mitchell, of Atlanta, representing Georgia, had a conference with the president at the White House today and it was all fixed up.

The president will leave Washington on the evening of Sunday, June 9, accompanied by the members of the cabinet, sailing on the Mayflower about 6 o'clock. The governor and the members of the exposition committee will leave Atlanta on Friday or Saturday in order to reach Newport News on the evening of Sunday.

The governor and Mr. Mitchell will be picked up at Hampton Roads on Sunday evening by a launch from the battleship Georgia and taken aboard the battleship, which will then sail as far up the Potomac as possible and meet the Mayflower. The president and cabinet members will then be transferred to the Georgia, and the battleship will return down the river to Jamestown and anchor off the exposition grounds. On Monday morning about 10 o'clock the presentation of silver service will take place, the governor of Georgia, making the presentation and the president receiving the gift. Arrangements are being made to have a tugboat transfer the members of the Georgia committee to the battleship to witness the ceremony.

The president will then land at the exposition grounds, where the troops will be lined up to receive him, and will be escorted to the Georgia building by the West Point cadets, the Annapolis cadets, the Virginia Military Institute and Georgia cadets, and the Fifth Regiment of Georgia State Troops.

Arriving at the Georgia building, the president will be introduced by W. N. Mitchell, chairman of the Georgia committee, and will make an address. At its conclusion, he will be entertained in the Georgia building in an exact facsimile of rooms where the wedding feast of his parents was served. The old butler of the Bullocks will assist in serving at the luncheon.

At 3 o'clock in the afternoon the president will deliver an address before the National Editorial Association, returning to Washington that night.

Arrangements have been made for the prompt transportation of the brick from Macon to Jamestown for use in the construction of the reproduction of Bulloch Hall. The Southern railway has quoted Mr. Mitchell a particularly low rate on transportation of the brick as a contribution to the Georgia building.

Another Peonage Case.

MACON, March 18.—A. F. Mosely and S. H. Hardeman were arraigned before the federal authorities here today under charge of peonage because of the alleged arrest and detention of a negro named Hurt on a warrant charging cheating and swindling. Both are prominent Jasper county farmers. They secured a stay of proceedings until March 30, when their witnesses will appear. They had the negro arrested for running away from Mosely's farm after borrowing money.

Scissors in Body.

WICHITA, Kan., March 16.—A pair of five-inch surgeon's scissors were taken from the thigh of Mrs. W. K. White of Braman, Oklahoma, at the Wichita hospital today. She was operated on for a tumor four years ago, and the scissors were left in the abdominal cavity. The scissors worked through her body to the thigh, causing excruciating pain.

They were discovered with the aid of the X-ray.

Miller-Donaldson.

At the residence of the officiating minister, Elder A. W. Patterson, Sunday morning, 17th inst., Mr. Walter Miller of Statesboro and Miss Bessie Donaldson, of Blitch, were quietly married.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. Jas. Donaldson, of Blitch, and has a large host of friends and admirers.

Brannen-Lanier.

At the home of Judge G. R. Trappell, at Metter, on Sunday, 17th inst., Mr. Julian Brannen, of Statesboro, and Miss Pearl Lanier were married, Judge Trappell officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. J. A. Lanier, near Metter, and is a young woman of rare charms. Mr. Brannen is the son of Mr. J. G. Brannen, was formerly engaged in the Lanier-Fulcher shoe business here, but is now saw milling near Clito.

Mourning Was Short.

JESUP, Ga., March 18.—While the attorney for Mrs. Mary E. Simpson was waxing eloquent this morning in his plea for her absolute divorce from her husband, who, it is alleged, was given to corporal punishment of his spouse, the aggrieved plaintiff was in the ordinary office with her second selection securing a license.

The decree granting her petition for annulment from the trials of matrimony was granted at 2:30 o'clock. At 2:45 she was married to Louis Keen, who took his solemn vows, encouraged by his new-made grass widow amid the broad smiles of the assembled court.

MAN WITH A GUN.

Fired Several Shots Into the Watson Residence.

THOMSON, Ga., March 16.—Unknown parties started out Thursday night to "shoot up" Thomson, and one of the places visited was the home of Hon. Thomas E. Watson.

The shooting started near the court house. Shots were fired at the residence of Oscar S. Lee, son-in-law of Mr. Watson, and also at the residence of Robert H. Pearce, clerk of the superior court.

From there the parties went to the elegant home of Colonel Watson and renewed the disorders. Colonel and Mrs. Watson are at Fort Lauderdale, Fla. His son, John D. Watson, his wife and Miss Ethel Jones were in the house, however. Shots were fired into the house, narrowly missing Mr. Watson, who returned the fire. Several other shots were exchanged and Mr. Watson thinks he wounded one of the marauders.

The interests controlling the railroads, as a rule," he said, "study the problems of making immense fortunes at once out of increased stock and bond issues. The right to earn a just income on the actual investment in the properties does not interest them. They are careless of the duties owed by the transportation companies to the public."

"The railroad properties of the United States are capitalized at over $13,000,000,000. Careful estimates of their actual value show them to be worth less than $6,000,000,000. The 1 1/2, therefore, are being called on to pay excessive rates for transportation to make interests and dividends on $7,000,000,000 of watered stocks and bonds. These bonds and stocks rest like a permanent mortgage on the industries of those engaged in the various vocations of life."

"The transportation company is a public enterprise. The railroad is built by the use of the state's power of eminent domain. The public are entitled to a voice in the charges which are made by the railroad company for carrying passengers and freight. These charges must be reasonable and free from discrimination."

"The duties of a railroad company are first, to the public; second, to its stockholders."

"The public must look to the states and the nation to protect their rights."

"When we realize that over half the stocks and bonds issued by the railroad companies of the United States are speculative, and not based upon money actually invested in the properties, we see how recklessly the rights of the public have been disregarded."

"That there is a trend of thought more and more favorable to government ownership of transportation companies, I do not doubt. While trade advantages, as well as disadvantages, to be derived from government ownership of all the railroads, is hardly more than an academic question at present. Anything approximating wholesale government ownership would be impossible for many years to come, and the remedy immediately before us must necessarily be to perfect the legal authority in properly constituted agents to regulate and control, and then to enforce through these agents the rights of the public."

"The rate-making power has been given to the national railroad commission. We should not be afraid to place upon the commission men sufficient in number to handle these questions. Their pay should be ample, and a seat on the national railroad commission should be regarded as one fully as exalted as a seat on the supreme court bench of the United States."

Register Mention.

Miss Maggie returned home Sunday from Claxton.

Miss Alice Cowart, who has had charge of a millinery business here for over a year, has accepted a position with Mr. F. L. Clary in Statesboro.

Miss Maggie and Jim Summerlin of Savannah spent three days of last week in Register.

Miss Minnie Holland is visiting kin folks in Tattall this week.

The new brick building of the Williams brothers adds a great deal to the looks of Register.

MADE BIG SPEECH

Hoke Smith Talked on Subject of Transportation.

SPOKE TO CINCINNATI SHIPPERS

Government Ownership May Be Solution of Railroad Management, He Declares.

CINCINNATI, March 14.—The danger in unrestricted management of railroad properties and the necessity for government control to prevent discrimination in rates were urged by Gov. Hoke Smith of Georgia in an address on Transportation before the Cincinnati Receivers and Shippers' Association tonight. Between three and four hundred business men of Cincinnati and vicinity heard the address, which was delivered at the annual banquet of the organization. Gov. Smith spoke about transportation, saying there was no more important and difficult problem to be solved by the people of the United States.

"The interests controlling the railroads, as a rule," he said, "study the problems of making immense fortunes at once out of increased stock and bond issues. The right to earn a just income on the actual investment in the properties does not interest them. They are careless of the duties owed by the transportation companies to the public."

"The railroad properties of the United States are capitalized at over $13,000,000,000. Careful estimates of their actual value show them to be worth less than $6,000,000,000. The 1 1/2, therefore, are being called on to pay excessive rates for transportation to make interests and dividends on $7,000,000,000 of watered stocks and bonds. These bonds and stocks rest like a permanent mortgage on the industries of those engaged in the various vocations of life."

"The transportation company is a public enterprise. The railroad is built by the use of the state's power of eminent domain. The public are entitled to a voice in the charges which are made by the railroad company for carrying passengers and freight. These charges must be reasonable and free from discrimination."

"The duties of a railroad company are first, to the public; second, to its stockholders."

"The public must look to the states and the nation to protect their rights."

"When we realize that over half the stocks and bonds issued by the railroad companies of the United States are speculative, and not based upon money actually invested in the properties, we see how recklessly the rights of the public have been disregarded."

"That there is a trend of thought more and more favorable to government ownership of transportation companies, I do not doubt. While trade advantages, as well as disadvantages, to be derived from government ownership of all the railroads, is hardly more than an academic question at present. Anything approximating wholesale government ownership would be impossible for many years to come, and the remedy immediately before us must necessarily be to perfect the legal authority in properly constituted agents to regulate and control, and then to enforce through these agents the rights of the public."

"The rate-making power has been given to the national railroad commission. We should not be afraid to place upon the commission men sufficient in number to handle these questions. Their pay should be ample, and a seat on the national railroad commission should be regarded as one fully as exalted as a seat on the supreme court bench of the United States."

Program.

of meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Bulloch County Association, to be held at Macedonia Baptist church Saturday, March 30th, 2 p. m.

Subject: Sowing and reaping (Ps. 126:5-6).

Devotional services, conducted by Mrs. S. L. Miller.

Song, "Bringing in the Sheaves," Prayer.

Why Sow (Matt. 28:19-20), Miss Ada Miller.

What to Sow (Mark 4:14), Mrs. H. B. Strange.

When and Where to Sow (2 Tim. 1:2), Miss Eva Newton.

How to Sow (2 Cor. 9:6) Miss Tina Grimes.

Song, "What Shall the Harvest Be?"

Reaping (Psalm 126:5), Mrs. E. W. Hodges.

Benediction.

Dissolution Notice.

The firm of J. J. Howard & Co. has been dissolved by mutual consent, J. Howard's interest having been bought by the undersigned, who will continue business under the firm name of Howard Lumber Co.

J. J. HOWARD,
J. E. HOWARD.

Feb. 28, 1907.

Soda Fountain for Sale.

A handsome fountain, cost over $300, been used one season; will sell at a bargain.

B. E. TURNER CO.

the United States. "Limited railroad ownership, national state and municipal, may be necessary to supplement national and state control."

"The people are daily gathering information on transportation questions. They realize as never before, the unjust burdens which have been placed upon them. The future is full of hope."

Edwards Was Here.

Congressman C. G. Edwards spent Sunday in Statesboro, the guest of the family of Mr. W. C. Parker, where his wife and her mother had spent several days.

His visit being a purely social one, he did not mingle with his constituents but remained indoors all day except that he attended preaching at the Baptist church in the forenoon.

Charlie Edwards is a clever, polished gentleman, and it is expected that his conduct in the national halls of congress for the next two years will render him even more popular in this community.

HAD NIMBLE FINGERS.

Johnson is Now Sorry He Swiped the Cash.

Martin Johnson was last Saturday sentenced to serve ten months in the gang upon his entering a plea of guilty to the charge of larceny.

Johnson is a colored drayman, formerly in the employ of the J. G. Blitch Co. At a frolic last Tuesday night he became envious of a Warren Jones had upon his person, and when Warren imbibed too freely and fell by the wayside, Johnson, under pretense of assisting him, relieved him of his valuables.

"An interesting feature of the entire affair is that the money and watch did not belong to Jones, but were borrowed by him from a white young friend for the purpose of 'cutting a shine' among the negroes at the party. He accomplished his purpose all right, but was sorry when he waked from his slumbers and found his valuables, and even his hat missing."

About $30 of the cash was returned by Johnson, who had used the remainder in paying up some small debts which he owed about town. The watch has never been located, and Johnson denies all knowledge of it.

Program.

of meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Bulloch County Association, to be held at Macedonia Baptist church Saturday, March 30th, 2 p. m.

Subject: Sowing and reaping (Ps. 126:5-6).

Devotional services, conducted by Mrs. S. L. Miller.

Song, "Bringing in the Sheaves," Prayer.

Why Sow (Matt. 28:19-20), Miss Ada Miller.

What to Sow (Mark 4:14), Mrs. H. B. Strange.

When and Where to Sow (2 Tim. 1:2), Miss Eva Newton.

How to Sow (2 Cor. 9:6) Miss Tina Grimes.

Song, "What Shall the Harvest Be?"

Reaping (Psalm 126:5), Mrs. E. W. Hodges.

Benediction.

Dissolution Notice.

The firm of J. J. Howard & Co. has been dissolved by mutual consent, J. Howard's interest having been bought by the undersigned, who will continue business under the firm name of Howard Lumber Co.

J. J. HOWARD,
J. E. HOWARD.

Feb. 28, 1907.

Soda Fountain for Sale.

A handsome fountain, cost over $300, been used one season; will sell at a bargain.

B. E. TURNER CO.

Program.

of meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Bulloch County Association, to be held at Macedonia Baptist church Saturday, March 30th, 2 p. m.

Subject: Sowing and reaping (Ps. 126:5-6).

Devotional services, conducted by Mrs. S. L. Miller.

Song, "Bringing in the Sheaves," Prayer.

Why Sow (Matt. 28:19-20), Miss Ada Miller.

What to Sow (Mark 4:14), Mrs. H. B. Strange.

When and Where to Sow (2 Tim. 1:2), Miss Eva Newton.

How to Sow (2 Cor. 9:6) Miss Tina Grimes.

Song, "What Shall the Harvest Be?"

Reaping (Psalm 126:5), Mrs. E. W. Hodges.

Benediction.

Dissolution Notice.

The firm of J. J. Howard & Co. has been dissolved by mutual consent, J. Howard's interest having been bought by the undersigned, who will continue business under the firm name of Howard Lumber Co.

J. J. HOWARD,
J. E. HOWARD.

Feb. 28, 1907.

Soda Fountain for Sale.

A handsome fountain, cost over $300, been used one season; will sell at a bargain.

B. E. TURNER CO.

Iron Safes.

We have the agency for two standard makes of iron safes, and will appreciate your orders.

HOLLAND & BRASWELL.

Shingles for Sale.

Have just received a carload of shingles and can supply your wants.

A. J. FRANKLIN.

WE WANT TO MEET YOU.

We want you to open an account with us, because we know it will help you; we know it will help you to save money, we treat all our customers with the same courtesy, whether their accounts are large or small. We are always ready and willing to give you the benefit of our experience and business advice.

Please call.

No. 7468

The First National Bank of Statesboro

BROOKS SIMMONS President

J. F. McROAN Cashier

Directors: P. P. REGISTER, M. G. BRANNEN, W. W. WILLIAMS, JAS. B. RUSHING, F. N. GRIMES, BROOKS SIMMONS, F. E. FIELD.

One dollar ($1.00) will open an account with us. Start and make it grow.

We pay four (4) per cent. on Time Deposits. Interest paid quarterly if you wish.

GOOD NEWS IS SPREADING.

Hundreds of New Faces Seen at the Drug Stores.

The Plant Juice remedies which are being introduced in this section for the first time seems to be accomplishing even more than is claimed for them by the advertiser, and the number of people who have called and voluntarily given this endorsement to its healing qualities increases day by day. Within the past ten days hundreds of sick people who have been using the remedies have been calling on the druggists to express their gratitude and to give testimony to the wonderful results of the use of the medicines.

Many people would be surprised to witness the number of people calling for Plant Juice and recounting without request the great benefit derived from the use of these medicines. But to Mr. M. M. Markley it appears to be an everyday occurrence. Concerning the feature of the business Mr. Markley said:

"To an outsider the many calls that I receive after the medicines have been advertised in a city, from people who have taken Plant Juice remedies and have come to tell me what it has done, may seem to be very unusual, but ever since the introduction of this medicine I have been having the same experience every day, and therefore it occurs to me as a matter of course. A sick man or a sick woman who has been benefited or made well in a comparatively short time is the most grateful person in the world. Probably you don't know it, but about nine tenths of the diseases with which human beings are afflicted are due primarily and fundamentally to stomach trouble. The stomach is practically speaking, the furnace which runs the machinery of the entire body. Human life is supported by the food which is taken into the system, and every bit of that food must be prepared or digested by the stomach in such a manner that it can be turned into rich blood, bone, sinew, etc., and the minute it becomes out of order much suffering is the result. The results accomplished by Plant Juice seem wonderful when you do not understand the nature of the remedy. As a matter of fact, the principal thing the remedy does is to put the stomach in good working order in a very short time, and in consequence the action of every other organ is improved at once, and good health is the result."

Mr. R. Thomas, one of the best known citizens of Laurens county, had been afflicted with deafness for more than twelve years. He had tried almost every remedy known without relief. He was persuaded to visit his druggist and stated his case to him. When the nature of the ailment was known, the treatment prescribed for Plant Juice liniment, was immediately applied. The application of this treatment as applied to Mr. Thomas was about as follows: Plant Juice liniment was rubbed around the ear, and the surrounding parts was vigorously rubbed with liberal quantities of the liniment. The finger was dipped in the liniment and inserted in the ear and withdrawn with a quick motion, following which Mr. Thomas declared the treatment in his hearing was perceptible at once. The cure was illustrated to the audience in a common conversation between the patient and the operator, and the audience was astonished at the result.

Miss Holand, a well known lady who had been afflicted similarly for practically the same length of time, was also given the same treatment with the same satisfactory result, thus proving the efficacy and wonderful reliability of this wonderful medicine. There have been numerous other cases as pronounced in their result as the ones just recounted, but space forbids the enumeration of them all.

Since it has been illustrated that Dillingham's Plant Juice liniment is equally efficacious with the ailments of man and beast, a large number of cures have been effected among horses of this vicinity and many animals suffering from painful injuries and afflictions have been instantly relieved by the application of this wonderful remedy.

Reports from the use of this wonderful Plant Juice remedy are also coming to Mr. Markley daily, some of them bordering on the marvelous. Mr. Jas. Beatty had been afflicted with kidney trouble and a very lame back. He secured a bottle of Dillingham's Plant Juice and took it strictly according to directions. Col. Dillingham has the personal and unsolicited testimony of Mr. Beatty that the improvement in his condition is marked and that he is now entirely relieved. This is one of the hundreds of cases which are hourly coming under the observation of Mr. Markley. For sale by all druggists.

Iron Safes.

We have the agency for two standard makes of iron safes, and will appreciate your orders.

HOLLAND & BRASWELL.

Shingles for Sale.

Have just received a carload of shingles and can supply your wants.

A. J. FRANKLIN.

Shingles for Sale.

Have just received a carload of shingles and can supply your wants.

A. J. FRANKLIN.

Shingles for Sale.

Have just received a carload of shingles and can supply your wants.

A. J. FRANKLIN.

Shingles for Sale.

Have just received a carload of shingles and can supply your wants.

A. J. FRANKLIN.

Shingles for Sale.

Have just received a carload of shingles and can supply your wants.

A. J. FRANKLIN.